

Celebrate Black History Month

Local organisations Descendants, WAPPY and Oshun Education are providing a number of workshops and activities for children, young people and families during Black History Month. Find out more about what happened to the Jamaican men who arrived on the Windrush, learn about the Ancient Kingdom of Benin or join a whole day of fun activities. See below for details of the different workshops and activities, including whether they are being delivered in person or online.

Please note there is a small charge for some of the activities so please check the flyers for more details.
